Private Cooking Classes

How It Works:

You and your friends/clients/coworkers arrive. We begin by plying you with drinks. After 15 minutes or so, we gather everyone around to discuss the menu. We'll talk through the recipes in some detail then get to work on the prep for the menu. All of this takes place on our beautiful butcher block worktables. Then we head to the kitchen, get on the stove and in the oven. Ultimately, we transform the classroom from prep area to one big table for eating.

Menus:

We love to cook just about anything, and our menus and teachers span the globe! Our most popular themes are Farm to Table, A Taste of Thai, Fresh Pasta, Steak Night, Sushi Basics, and Dumplings. You can look at our upcoming public classes for inspiration. For private events, we'll help you put together a menu, or you might like one as is. Don't worry about dietary restrictions, we can accommodate any requests.
